A homecoming

Romulus rolls out red carpet for visitors

By BOB DENYS
ANP Staff Writer

The celebration of the Michigan Sesquicentennial in Romulus began on Heritage Day when the local Historical Society welcomed the descendants of several founding families.

As Michigan Week progressed local businesses and area students each commemorated the occasion with special events.

On Friday, Cultural Day, Romulus Mayor Beverly McAnally presented Mayor Domenic Boccabella of Allen Park with the key to the city on Mayor's Exchange Day. Romulus officials were the guests of Allen Park last Monday on Government Day.

Other highlights of the week included the Beacon School Science Fair presented at city hall on Tuesday. On Wednesday, Business, Industry and Labor Day, the Mayor presided over the installation of new officers at the Chamber of Commerce luncheon in the Hilton Inn.

On Thursday, Education Day, government students from Romulus High School assumed the roles of elected officials during the mock city council meeting in city hall.

It was fitting that during the Heritage Day presentation, Historical Society members recalled the place of Romulus within Michigan history. A dozen families with roots in the Romulus area 150 years ago were present.

McAnally noted, "Things in the city will continue to change but it's really nice that we can have a homecoming from time to time. Welcome back home."

Dick Krause, junior high school band director for the past 21 years, proudly noted his students will commemorate the sesquicentennial with a performance on the steps of the capitol in Washington, D.C. later this spring.

Michigan State Rep. James Kosteva told the audience, "I will be at many more glamorous and spectacular events celebrating this historic occasion but few will touch the heart like this does. Many families stood to be recognized more than once. To a large degree, we're all one family. Clearly, the pride Romulus residents have in tradition is important," he said.

Descendants from the founding families of Richard Bird, who arrived on Wayne Road in 1834, Daniel Dugan, who farmed along Middlebelt Road, Andrew Jackson Eves, who settled in 1836 on Eureka Road, Jenks Pullen, who came with six sons in 1832 and many others including the McBrides, Rices, Savages, Westbrook, Hosmers, Drouillards and Dorrs were on hand.

During the Chamber of Commerce luncheon, guest speaker Asher Tilchin spoke about the Travelodge development on Merriman Road before a distinguished audience of local businessmen.

Court Administrator and Magistrate Charles Walls addressed seniors from Romulus High School during the mock city council meeting on Thursday. He related stories about his 18-year tenure in the 34th District Court noting, "I've heard them all when it comes to traffic excuses."

Teacher Rod Hannon explained his students have participated in these proceedings for 10 years now. "It's a totally great experience. Students understand the workings of city, state and federal governments by the time they finish this class. They get involved in all the issues. We discuss the pros and cons. After all they're our future taxpayers," he said.

During Mayor's Exchange Day Friday, McAnally said, "I'm going to tell you some things about Romulus that aren't so public. First, it's an honor to have you here." She told visitors from Allen Park including Mayor Domenic Boccabella and his wife, Barbara, Councilman Bill Howard and Administrator Richard Huelbler.

After brunch prepared by Romulus High School Chef Don Halbritter and his students, City Planner Sally Hodges presented future development plans for the Wick Road area in council chambers.

The mayor then boarded a bus with her guests and visited the Lear Siegler plant on Eureka Road under the direction of Plant Manager Howard Billingsley.

The special guests were treated to lunch in the executive dining room of Metro Airport. Airport Director Dick Jamison and Operations Manager Bob Braun then guided their guests on a special tour of renovations at the airport.

"It's nice to go to a neighbor's and be at home there," commented Boccabella.

City officials from Romulus were busy last week welcoming visitors into their city. Pictured above from left are members of the Pullen Family who came from around the state to partake in the Heritage Day festivities. They surround the sign at the Five Points intersection which commemorates the founding of Romulus which was originally called Pullens Corners. 2 kidnap victims are abandoned

Last week, Romulus police received reports from two separate women claiming they were abducted in Detroit and transported to Romulus. One woman was shot in the leg and the other woman alleges she was sexually assaulted.

The first incident occurred on Thursday about 1:30 p.m. when local residents found a 26-year-old woman making her way along Henry Ruff and Smith roads, according to Romulus Lt. Ken Kraus. She had a gunshot to her left leg and was eventually transported to Ann Arbor Hospital for treatment.

"She reported that when she attempted to exit her vehicle at the Trolley Plaza Apartments on Washington Boulevard, she was abducted by two black males. One alleged abductor was about 6-foot and the other about 5-foot, 6-inches tall. They were driving a full-size late model black car," he said.

On Henry Ruff Road, she was ordered out of the car and told to run, police said. "She reported two shots were fired, one of which was struck her left leg. She went down and was walking or crawling when some local residents found her," he added.

After contacting the Detroit police department, an investigation is continuing. Police said she was not sexually assaulted but her purse is missing.

The second alleged abduction occurred at about 3:40 a.m. on Saturday. "An officer in a patrol car came upon two brothers and a woman inside a vehicle on Venoy Road south of Ecorse Road. After making contact with the vehicle, an 18-year old Detroit woman claimed to have been abducted from the area of Second Avenue and Peterboro Street in Detroit. She told police she was driven to Romulus and sexually assaulted.

Her alleged abductors were a 30-year-old Romulus resident and a 22-year-old Inkster resident. This "unusual case," according to police, is still being investigated.

County tests find 1 toxin from dump

Two weeks have passed since the toxic fire at a Romulus dump forced the evacuation of 1,500 area school children and residents and local agencies are still seeking answers.

Testing results from the Wayne County Health Department were made public yesterday. Officials from the Department of Natural Resources said they will begin the testing of ground and water samples later this week. None have been conducted since the fire, they noted.

"Testing by the Wayne County Health Department showed the situation is not hazardous as far as local schools are concerned," said Carol Stefani, spokesperson.

"An analysis completed by the Wayne County Air Pollution Control taken in a Wick Elementary School classroom showed evidence of a common industrial solvent known as tetrahydrofuran. The solvent is regularly used in paint and plastic products," said Stefani.

According to Peter Warner, pollution control supervisor, the standard safety limit for tetrahydrofuran is 200 parts per million. The sample from Wick showed 49 parts per million.

"The sample showed substantially less and the threshold limit value is 4,000 times safer than already acceptable," Warner explained.

Ground and water samples will be taken by the DNR, according to Tony Pitts, spokesperson. "We have continuously sampled the site, most recently in February," he said.

Fire Inspector Charles Bradley added that investigation continues. "No one admitted to open burning at the site," he said. Police are now investigating and suspect the fire to have been accidental in cause and "gotten out of hand."

Superintendent of Schools Dr. William Bedell explained, "There is no evidence that children have been abnormally sick as a result of this situation."

Attendance at the two schools evacuated during the fire, Wick Elementary and Romulus Junior High School, has almost returned to normal, he said. Bedell told concerned parents at an emergency meeting last Monday they could keep their children at home if they thought it necessary.

After the announcement, attendance last Tuesday at Wick School was reported at about 70 absences and by Wednesday only 60 students did not attend classes. Normal absence rate is about 40 students, according to Bedell.

"We've got to get the information," he stressed. "There has not been a single shred of evidence from the DNR and Health Department that the fumes from the fire were toxic. A committee of parents will meet this Thursday."

Local student achievement scores higher this year

The Michigan State Board of Education recently honored 49 Romulus students and three schools during an awards ceremony in Romulus Junior High School.

The students received certificates of recognition for earning perfect scores on the Michigan Educational Assessment Program. Superintendent William Bedell officiated and Board of Education members Ken Berlinn and Jo Ann Marvicon assisted.

Principal Dan Murphy of Merriman School, district MEAP coordinator, explained that each year, students in fourth, seventh and 10th grades are tested in mathematics and reading. For the first time this year, science was added.

"However, the results in science are experimental and have not been made public," said Barth Principal Bill Smith.

"The scoring used to establish minimum objectives, the things kids need to know as they enter that grade," Murphy said of the testing which takes place early in the year.

"The kids honored scored a 100 percent of the test objectives. And the schools honored scored a total of 75 percent of the test goals," he said.

Test scores were up over last years he said, as they were throughout the state. "Scores have been increasing each year. This is a testimony to the quality of education. Everyone has been working hard to get the kids up to par. MEAP sets the standard," he added.

Each elementary school principal presented their fourth grade students with certificates of recognition including Barth principal Bill Smith and students Tonya Frye, Alisa Pederson and Derek Welt; Cory principal Peter Silveri and students, Gerald Luster; Hayti principal Charles Shamey and students, Charisse Adams, Laura Olson, and Sarah Sobcinski; Merriman principal Dan Murphy and students, Paul Boslet, Jeremy Castle, Jason Chmura, Laquita Fox, Tyrone Jones and Jamie McGraw; and Wick principal Nick Totus and students, Adrienne Byrd, Star Maury, Laura Richardson, Timothy Shoup, Cheri Wallace, Johnathon Webb and Nina Wood.

Romulus Junior High School principal Tom Dolan also recognized seventh graders with certificates including, Leah Aggison, Melissa Boyer, Allison Cope, David McGinnis, Jonelle Sharp, Marci Tomchick, Aaron Young and Donald Zenke.

Romulus High School principal

Dr. Terrel LeCesne, assistant superintendent, honored three schools for a high level of achievement on the MEAP tests. Plaques were presented to the principals of Barth, Merriman and Halecreek.

Teachers represent Romulus

Seven Romulus Junior High School teachers told listeners at the State Middle School Convention about some of their successful programs. Principal Tom Dolan and assistant principal Dan Hurst discussed assertive discipline and the teacher advisor component in the school. The program includes daily half hour advisory classes with a monthly theme, classroom "buyouts," monthly dances etc. Dan Hurst also expanded on the assertive discipline theme in another presentation with a discussion of prevention teams which provide counseling for at-risk students. Linda Bradfield, Julie Audo, Terry Pokay, Debbie Juriga and John Silveri individually spoke how the junior high utilizes the school staff to identify, screen, evaluate, treat and review at-risk students "because of behavioral, academic, and/or social problems." Outdoor education teacher Bill Thomas explained his program where students not only investigate their natural world but are encouraged with hands-on demonstrations.

Just how liberal are they in Sterling Heights?

That was the question many of the members of the Westland city administration may have been asking themselves at lunch last Friday when the city hosted the mayor and members of the Sterling Heights City Council during Mayors' Exchange Day.

The day-long activities were carefully scheduled and arranged to present the best possible picture of the city, and, if the reaction of the visiting mayor was genuine, she was most impressed with the facilities and the management of the 10th largest city in the state. The entertainment at lunch, however, left a bad taste in several mouths.

An excellent entertainer was paid by the city administration to provide some after-lunch songs and patter to lighten up the atmosphere--at least that would be the assumption. The entertainer, while excellent, would have been better in a night club or other private facility rather than in a city-sponsored event.

The jokes were, in many cases, off color and the humor ribald. Nothing worse than might be seen on television these days, but not during prime time. The ethnic and blue jokes and remarks were out of place, ill-timed and poorly chosen.

The city administrators in attendance put on a good face, smiled and covered themselves well. It would be hard to believe that many of them were not, however, embarrassed and at the very least, surprised at the content of the entertainer's material.

To give praise where praise is due, however, they carried it off well. We would suspect that the character of the material chosen may have been as much a surprise to the mayor and his wife as it was to the visiting dignitaries. To Charles Griffin's credit, he carried it off with his usual charm and good grace, as did his wife, Margaret.

Many in the audience were undoubtedly uncomfortable, surprised and shocked, but not a ripple was demonstrated publicly. The selection of the entertainment might have been somewhat more carefully screened, and certainly the selection of sexual jokes and innuendo out of place at this type of city-hosted luncheon, but the good form of those faced with this type of embarrassment was impressive, indeed. While no one in the room could be classified as a prude or a fanatic, the obvious poor taste of the comedy material at this type of function was evident.

The selection of the entertainment might have been somewhat more carefully screened, and certainly the selection of sexual jokes and innuendo out of place at this type of city-hosted luncheon, but the good form of those faced with this type of embarrassment was impressive indeed.

The dialogue, somewhat reminiscent of Buddy Hackett or Richard Pryor, was mixed with some excellent guitar playing and singing and the skill of the performer cannot be criticized. The content at this type of function, however, certainly was inappropriate.

Lunch was very good, although the entertainment was tasteless. And, if watching the mayor and administration placed in this type of embarrassing situation is any gauge of the ability of these people to conduct themselves in a way to place others at ease and smooth over an uncomfortable situation, the voters in Westland have chosen wisely.

They made the best of a bad situation and did it with grace and good form. What might have become an extremely embarrassing situation was handled with good humor and a down-to-earth attitude. Our compliments to them.

Putting us in our place

bob denys speaking

How much news is enough? And what type of coverage do area residents expect from their local newspaper?

The final results may be completely in but conflicting views represent both sides. Many residents are very satisfied with coverage of their schools, government, business and social scene. While others are not.

As the reporter for the city of Romulus, population of less than 25,000, I can assure you the task is hardly easy.

If the local paper could achieve the size of the New York Times, in all honesty, there would certainly be enough news to fill it on a daily basis. Economics prohibits such an endeavor.

A lot goes on in every city. And many things go unnoticed. Yet, it is the job of the local paper to decide what and when an item is published. Often exact timing is required for maximum efficiency in a small-town paper.

In the course of a day, the phone rings many times with calls from officials and residents with leads on a variety of subjects. Just the other day a resident called about a suspected case of child abuse from a babysitter next door. And the family is a rather prominent one. Where to begin?

City officials want more news of the inner workings of the local government. I would hope they do. They deserve it. In general, many are working hard and doing a fine job.

The same holds true for the school administration and activities. To be honest, we often only touch the tip of the iceberg when it comes to reporting the thousands of important events in our local schools. Schools are certainly the cultural barometer of the city. Students offer vibrancy and excitement easily captured but which space limits in the local paper.

More than I care to admit, people say there's no local news after the first two pages. Hogwash! Information about local residents and events is located throughout the paper. Area residents are frequently highlighted in the Focus on People page. And our sports editor aggressively follows local sports.

Yes, talk about incomplete coverage from the local paper bothers me. Maybe that's all those remarks are intended to do, keep me on my toes. It's still not fair. Local residents receive better coverage of events which most affect their lives than they could expect from any other community.

Detroit residents, of which I am one, know better. During my 33 years in that community, I have seen many major stories slip by, from unusual murders to fantastic feature stories. It's easy to present an interesting news edition. But it is another thing to say this is everything going on in your community and neighborhood.

Which makes cities the size of Romulus special because they are like large neighborhoods. Residents are quick to call their local newspaper with criticism as well as compliments.

The other day an elected official told me they hadn't received the local paper for more than a year. That's interesting. I wonder from just which sources are they learning about their city, if not the local paper?

Cities like Romulus are dynamic. They change every day. And what was news last week might be thrown out with yesterday's trash today. The job of the local reporter remains like that of an editor selecting and judging which top stories will be written about this week and which will fairly and accurately represent the community.

There's no question, local residents receive better coverage than their metropolitan neighbors. Local reporters like myself are much more accountable to their readers. When someone calls and wants something in the paper, it gets in or I come up with a good reason as to why it doesn't.

Because of this, local papers are only as good as the readers they serve. If we don't know about a particular situation, your job is to tell us. Our job is to investigate and report the facts. If you don't like something, call us. If you want something included in the paper, call us.

Fifty cents is a small price to pay for community information that affects your home and your family. Last year, this paper was recognized as the best newspaper in its circulation category by the University of Michigan Press Club, which examined every paper in the state. We also won the admiration of the Michigan Press Association, which chose our editorial page and our editorial writing as the best in the state, in any circulation category. The reason for our excellence is really pretty simple. We understand our job. We're local.

Civic leader is applauded

To The Editor:

An era ended April 30 when longtime Romulus resident and community activist Geneva Clark retired after 17 years as director of the Family and Neighborhood Services/Center for Creative Development.

The Center for Creative Development, formerly called the Eager Beaver Day Activity Center, is located in the Lorena Burton Memorial Building on Beverly Road and provides services to over 70 developmentally impaired adults. Program components include daily living skills, adult basic education, dental hygiene, and prevocational training. Clark, along with a handful of parents and the support of Family and Neighborhood Services, started the Eager Beaver program in the early 70s to serve a handful of handicapped children. Under Clark's strong leadership the program went from a small, volunteer-based operation to the full-blown CCD program that exists today.

Over the years, Clark has lobbied long and hard for handicapped citizens. Largely due to her efforts, the program she started has received support and funding from United Community Services, the city of Romulus, Romulus Community Schools, Eastern Michigan University, local service clubs, Michigan Department of Mental Health, Michigan Academy of Dentistry, parent groups, private citizens, and the primary CCD sponsor, Family and Neighborhood Services. Those acquainted with Clark's efforts to help the disadvantaged know her to be a tireless champion of the cause who refuses to take "no" for an answer.

Geneva Clark has been driven by the need to help handicapped citizens meet their full potential. Her philosophy has been not to pamper the handicapped, but to make them be all that they can be. It has been a job for me to see the growth and development made by some of her clients who others had written off long ago. Her retirement is CCD's loss and the community's gain, as I am sure she plans to channel her newly-found free time and energy into projects to help those less fortunate. Thanks, Geneva, for all you have done - the world needs more people like you.

Resident dislikes 'foul cleanup'

To The Editor:

Through the mail yesterday I received a letter from the city of Wayne. They have declared the week of April 26 through May 2 "Keep America Beautiful Week in Wayne." Enclosed in this envelope was a (garbage) bag from Waste Management.

I wish the city had sent this bag - or even many bags. I would have been proud to help with this activity. What happens to the Garfield Subdivision, which is part of Wayne and is directly across from me?

What could I do with one bag? Wish I had the money, including that which was paid out for bags, to pick up the debris from the Woodland Meadows which Waste Management is putting or has put hazardous waste in 24 hours each day.

The smell is so bad that we do not barbecue outside nor do we even put out a garden of vegetables because of the waste flying around and the sea gulls flying over.

The city is letting Waste Management tell us to keep America clean. It has been for 40 years before they moved in. If for a minute the city had to smell this awful Waste Management waste, they would have never sent out these stupid bags.

Maybe Waste Management should dump a full load of this waste on the city hall. Then you would know how the Garfield Subdivision feels. Now if the city through Waste Management had sent us a gas mask or an oxygen tank, it would have made sense.

Hunger: Drouillard fights it every day

By BOB DENYS
ANP Staff Writer

John Drouillard appears healthy and robust and yet he's a man who fights hunger every day.

As area coordinator for the out-Wayne County Emergency Food Community Network and director for Daily Bread Ministries, Drouillard delivers 7,000 pounds of food a week and 10,000 meals a month from his Stewart Street home in Romulus. The recipients are local needy people.

"I don't need the publicity," he stressed. "I'm not hungry, but hunger is our major concern and we need public support."

Drouillard is a concerned citizen who aggressively tackles community issues, and he does battle from his wheelchair, where polio left him when he was 8 years of age. "I didn't ask for this, but what can you do?" he said.

ASSOCIATED NEWSPAPERS: How did you become involved with this program?

DROUILLARD: I joined the Vista volunteer program two years ago. I've always been self-employed. I used to buy a business, build it up and sell it. I've owned mostly service stations and body shops.

I became a born-again Christian 12 years ago. I sincerely began to care about people and decided to take five years out of my life for just that. I didn't want to wait until I retire.

Two years ago, I told my wife I needed to do something for people full time. I joined Vista and that's when we began distributing food from our house. Actually, God runs the program.

However, Vista pays me $500 a month.

The first six months we started, 500 pounds of groceries were distributed. By the year's end, it was 65,000 pounds and last year we topped 242,000 pounds. This year we expect local residents to pick up about half-a-million pounds of food. We do care about people. We'd rather say we're visionaries than missionaries.

Hunger doesn't take a vacation. Hunger is everywhere in the United States. But it wears a different mask. Many people think hunger is only little kids with bloated stomachs like they see on television. At our centers, people are offered a chance to get back on their feet.

ANP: Where does most of the money come from to support the program?

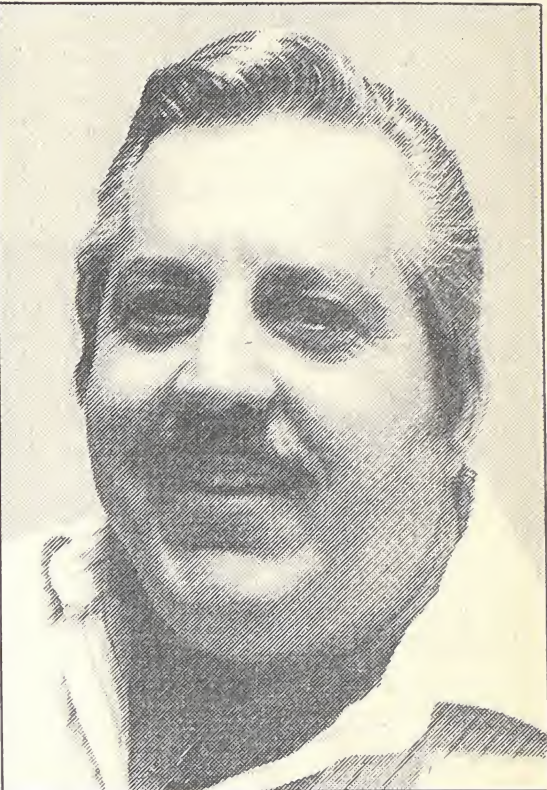

DROUILLARD: This is the first year we are getting outside help. About $6,700 came from the federal government, and $15,000 came from Hands Across America. No money can be used for anything but food, no administration costs.

Romulus has five of the 52 out-Wayne County centers. Like most centers, there is more traffic than we can handle. This is why public support is encouraged.

ANP: Is your family involved?

DROUILLARD: I was born in Delray 42 years ago, but raised in Taylor. I met my wife Carol nine years ago in church. That's a good basis for marriage. We share the same goals. Our hearts are the same.

I've always had a burning desire to help people. Hunger is emotional as well as physical. Local people may not go to bed hungry, but many are undernourished. I want to learn their needs and I want to help them.

YOUR CHOICE; METHOD OF HEALING

Those of us who are in ill health, will seek the services of one who is trained in the healing arts. We wish to place ourselves under the care of one who will restore our health.
If we have never been under chiropractic care in the past, we will then wish to know what chiropractic can do for us? Will it improve my condition? How will chiropractic restore my health?

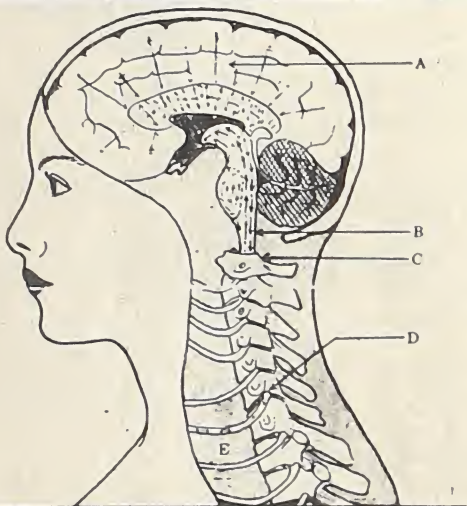

As a chiropractic patient, you will receive no drugs or undergo no surgery for your sickness.
How then will you get well without the use of drugs or surgery?
To properly understand this, we must realize that there is A CAUSE OF ILL HEALTH. This cause must be found and corrected to restore good health.
What is this CAUSE and how can chiropractic correct it?
After your case history has been taken, a SPINAL EXAMINATION will follow to locate the cause of your sickness.

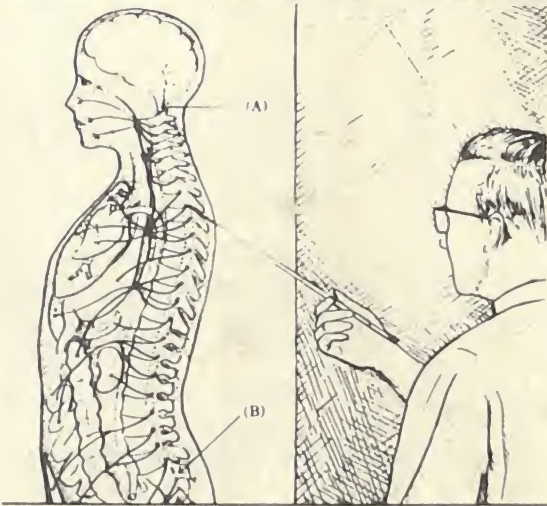

SPINAL EXAMINATION

By use of X-Ray machine, nerve tracing instruments or by feeling (palpation) the chiropractor examines the spine. He will then determine if there are any vertebrae (bony segments of the spine) out of place thus causing pressure upon the nerves.
But why examine the spine when our trouble is elsewhere? WHAT HAVE THESE OUT OF PLACE VERTEBRAE TO DO WITH OUR ILLNESS? WHAT IS NERVE PRESSURE?

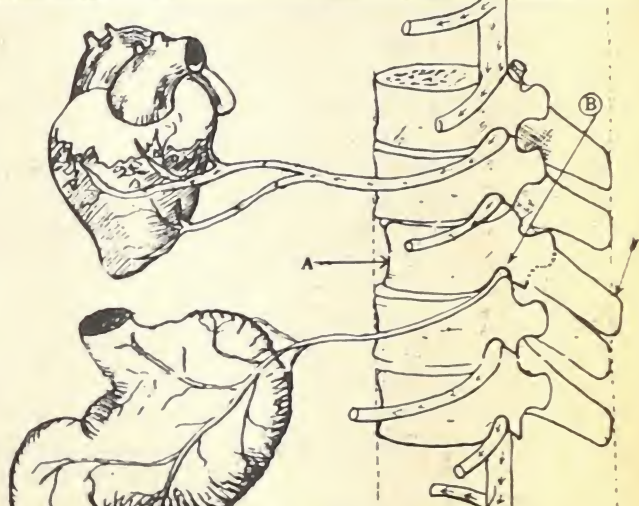

All our bodily functions such as digestion, heart beat or breathing receive mental impulses or nerve energy from the brain, (A). These mental impulses flow down spinal cord, (B). Spinal cord enters spine, (C). Small openings between vertebrae (D), permit nerves, (E), to emerge and to carry these vital mental impulses or nerve energy to all parts of our bodies. [See next page.] THESE VERTEBRAE ARE MOVABLE. THUS WE CAN SEE SHOULD A VERTEBRA SLIP OUT OF PLACE, THAT WOULD NARROW THE OPENING THUS PINCHING THE NERVE.

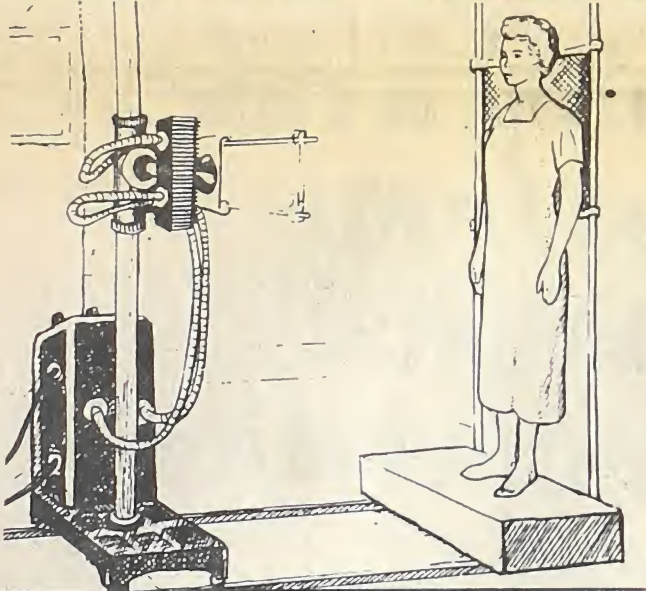

NERVE ENERGY; FROM BRAIN TO BODY

Our spine consists of 24 movable bony segments called vertebrae. The spinal column is not a solid bony structure. Rather it is hollow in its center to permit spinal cord, (A) to enter at the top and continue through its center to bottom of spine, (B). In between each vertebra are small openings to permit nerves, which branch off spinal cord, to emerge and to be distributed to various organs.

SUBLUXATION; THE CAUSE OF SICKNESS

Since our vertebrae of the spine are movable, it is then possible for one to slip out of place, (A). When this happens, it will narrow opening (B) thus pressing upon the nerve. This is called a subluxation. It will interfere with normal flow of nerve energy. Any interference with the normal transmission of vital mental impulses or nerve energy from brain to organs will result in sickness.

X-RAY EXAMINATION

Very beneficial in the examination of the patient is the X-Ray machine. If your chiropractor advises an X-Ray examination, your spine will then be X-Rayed, perhaps at different angles, to reveal its condition. Spinographs (X-Ray films of spine) are of great aid in locating subluxations.

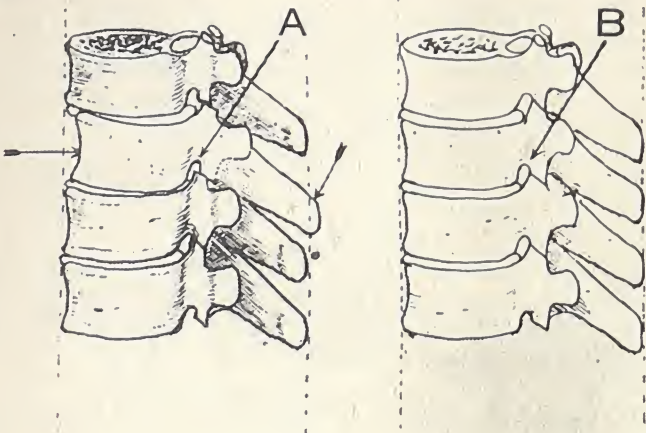

X-RAY ANALYSIS

After the X-Ray's have been taken, the films will be analyzed to determine if a subluxation is present. If the X-Ray films reveal a vertebra that is out of place, these same films will then aid the chiropractor in determining how to correct this subluxation.

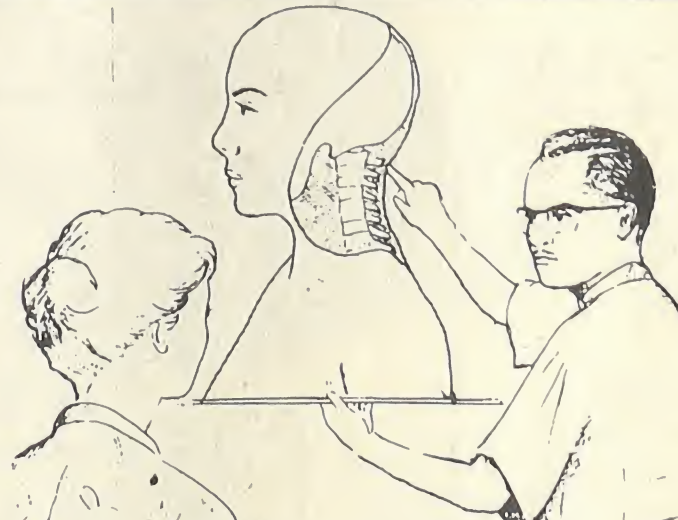

THE SPINAL ADJUSTMENT

If the spinal examination reveals a subluxation, the chiropractor will then, by the use of his hands, adjust that vertebra in order to restore it to its normal position. The spinal adjustment is completed by the chiropractor with skill and efficiency with no discomfort to the patient.

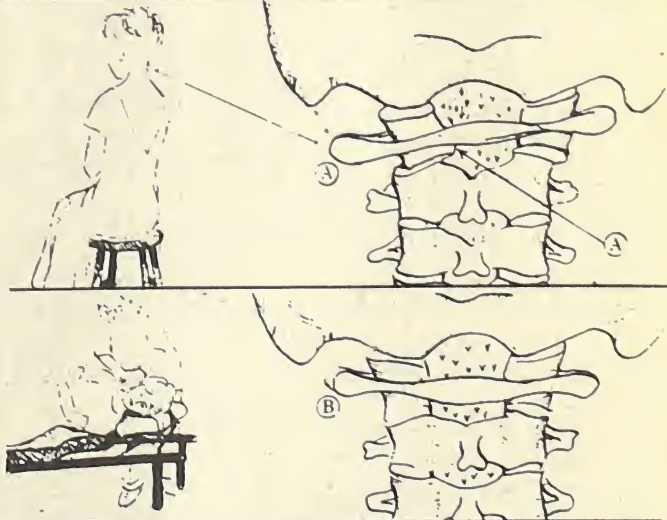

SUBLUXATION; BEFORE AND AFTER ADJUSTMENTS

Section of spine at the left illustrates a vertebra that is slightly out of place. This subluxation will narrow small opening between vertebra (A) from which nerves emerge leading to various organs. (See page 6.) View at right shows how subluxated vertebra is restored to its normal position by spinal adjustments. OPENING BETWEEN VERTEBRA (B) IS NOW NORMAL.

THE CERVICAL OR NECK REGION

THE MOST FREELY MOVABLE part of the spine is in the neck region. Here the cervical vertebrae are constantly articulating as we move our head in different directions throughout our daily activities. While this movement is normal, an abrupt turn, work or play habits that tend to keep head in certain positions for long periods of time, falls, strains and even sleep (improper head support) may cause a subluxation in this region.

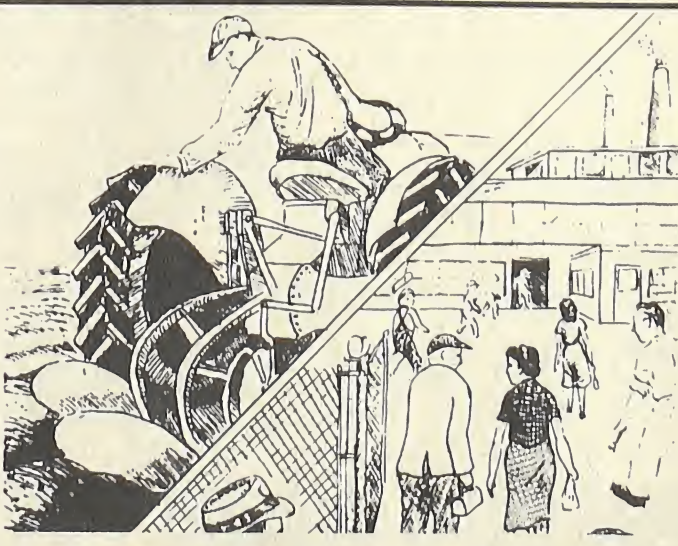

UPPER CERVICAL ADJUSTMENT

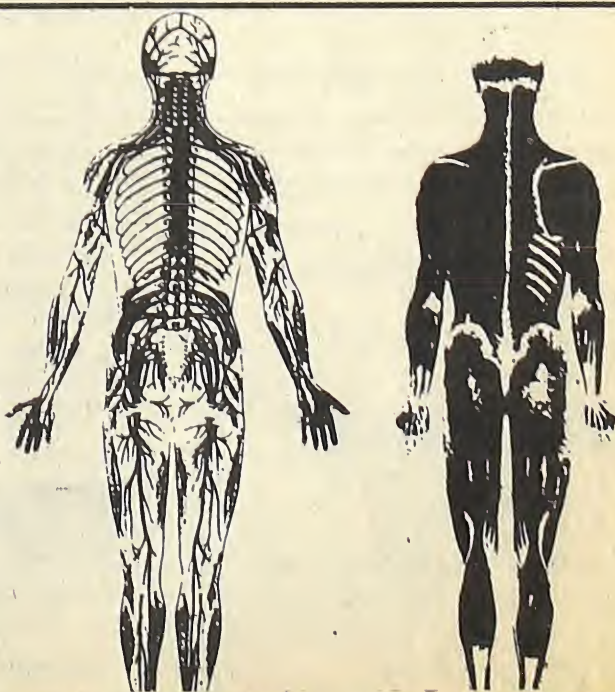

Because the spinal cord leaves the brain and enters the spinal canal in the cervical (neck) region, a subluxation occurring here may put pressure upon the spinal cord, (A). This will interfere with the normal flow of vital mental impulses to the body and organs. To correct this condition a NECK OR UPPER CERVICAL ADJUSTMENT will be necessary to restore vertebra to its normal position, (B), thus relieving pressure upon the spinal cord.

Many times a patient will have a chronic subluxation (one of long duration). This subluxation may have developed over a period of time through certain work habits or perhaps during other activities that put a strain on the spine. It may be the result of a previous accident, fall, or strain. A subluxation of long standing may impair the efficiency of the surrounding muscles and tissues. That efficiency must be restored. Therefore adjustments over a period of time may be necessary to restore vertebra to its normal position.

Because of the nature of his work, the industrial worker is frequently subject to back injuries and strains. Lifting, loading, or perhaps certain machine or bench work may cause back trouble. Also subject to various back mishaps is the farmer. TIME LOST FROM WORK WILL BE LESSENED when the worker is put under chiropractic care following back injuries. At the same time, if a subluxation is present, it will be corrected thus preventing sickness later as a result of nerve pressure.

Sizzle into Summer

Summer. Summer, summer, summer. It turns you upside down
But summer doesn't have to turn your pockets inside out this year. Or your checkbook. Your charge cards or your pocketbook. Summertime travel can be as inexpensive as traveling to your own back yard. That is, if you utilize the countless summertime recreational offerings available there.

While exotic trips to each state in the Union and beyond can be impressive when sending postcards to friends and relatives, summer fun at home can be far less expensive and just as enjoyable. From the shores of Belleville Lake, trails of Edward Hines Park, farm yards in Wayne to the kiddie recreational programs offered in most every community, summer fun abounds at home. However, you must know where to look.

Look no further. Below is outlined several of the summer recreational offerings of each of the area communities. In addition to this list, be sure to peruse our "places to go" column each week for additional happenings that will make your summer sizzle.

BELLEVILLE AREA

■ The good news is that there is plenty of space to sunbathe at Van Buren Park this summer. The bad news is that the beach is closed to swimmers and boaters will have a more difficult time finding a launch site.

Belleville Lake, the only major lake in Wayne County, has been the focal point for recreation for the past six decades. However, this summer, due to the discovery of structural damage to the French Landing Dam, recreational use of the lake has been curtailed. "Not banned," township officials stressed, "just curtailed."

Due to the shallowness of the lake, many boaters have been left "high and dry" and the low lake level requires additional caution to those who do use the lake.

A full-length Disney movie is slated to be shown at the Van Buren Park, alongside the lake, on June 19 and more evening entertainment is tentatively scheduled.

■ A full season of summer recreational programs is slated for youngsters in Sumpter Township, according to Deputy Clerk Nancy Kirchner.

The program will get under way on June 29 and continue five days a week through Aug. 21. Programs slated at the Sumpter Recreation Center will include basketball, softball and classes on arts and crafts.

The highlight of the summer, according to Kirchner, is the Sumpter Country Fest on July 31, Aug. 1 and 2. Every year some new features are added to the program and Kirchner expects this event to be an exciting one for township residents.

■ Summertime in Belleville focuses around the lake, parks and, of course, the annual Strawberry Festival.

At jeopardy this year is Belleville Venetian Days, a water festival which was slated to be an annual event. However, both city and township officials have issued announcements that the lake is still available for recreation - although it cannot be used to its maximum potential.

Belleville has two downtown city parks - Horizon and Victory. Horizon Park, which faces the lake, is described as a "viewing park" and is a favorite spot for people to watch the activity on the water. Victory Park, located at the five crossroads of town, features playground equipment, benches for relaxing and places for family outings or picnics.

In just 22 days the biggest summer event in Belleville is scheduled to take place. The annual Strawberry Festival draws thousands of visitors from all over the country to sample strawberry shortcake and sundaes, pick their own berries and participate in the many activities scheduled by the festival committee.

This year the festival will feature Tom T. Hall in four concerts slated at the Belleville High School auditorium. A queen and her court will be selected to reign over the three-day event which will also feature food concessions, games, exhibits and entertainment. From its beginning on June 19 to its closing on June 21, officials expect to see record crowds and a "great time had by all."

Swing yourself into the season
by participating in local activities

CANTON TOWNSHIP

■ One facility of which Canton Township officials are especially proud is the Fellow's Creek Golf Club. The recently renovated golf course has 27 holes and is located on Lotz Road near the I-275 highway.

■ For the Canton resident who thinks he or she is in good physical condition - or wants to be - try a run through at the township fitness trail.

The trail is set up behind the Township Administration Building in the Canton Recreation Complex.

It boasts 16 stations which will work every muscle in your body. The trail was designed that way and for that reason, some residents have been known to reverse the two vowels in the name and call it the fitness trial.

■ For residents whose idea of warm weather recreation is sitting outdoors watching steaks cook on the barbecue, the Canton Recreation Department extends an invitation to visit one of its three picnic areas.

The picnic pavilions are located at the Canton Recreation Complex behind the Township Administration Building and at Griffin Park, Cherry Hill at Canton Center.

There are two pavilions at the complex and one at Griffin, said Gouin.

The pavilions must be reserved but the booking sheet is "pretty open" right now, Gouin said.

There is no fee to use them but a security deposit is required "to make sure they clean up and no damage is done," Gouin said.

There is one house rule residents should know. "We don't allow alcohol," the recreation director said.

■ The Canton Country Festival will greet the area June 19, 20 and 21. The festival parade is June 13. The Country Festival - which features crafts, games, food and the annual cow-chip-pling contest - is conducted near the township administrative offices on Canton Center Road, just south of Cherry Hill, Canton Township.

■ The Mayflower Hotel Hot Air Balloon Festival will be July 3, 4 and 5. The festival will be staged in the fields surrounding Plymouth-Canton and Plymouth-Salem high schools, Canton Center Road, near Joy, Canton Township.

ROMULUS

■ Here for a visit or just passing through, the city of Romulus may not be able to compete with the likes of Walt Disney World or other exotic places, but Recreation Director Debbie Dick promises "plenty of things to do" in the local area.

Dick especially encourages young residents to participate in the summer program which begins June 22 and continues through Aug. 6. The program is conducted from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. each Monday through Thursday and includes the Junior Olympics and special trips. Elementary-age and junior and senior high school students are urged to participate.

The program is offered at five area schools - Hayti, Cory, Mt. Pleasant, Merriman and Halecreek and the Coleman Center on Beverly Road and the Civic League Center on Wharman Road.

Special events include for elementary age children, roller skating, the wave pool, the hands-on-museum in Ann Arbor, Four Bears Water Park and Kensington Beach. The same goes for junior and senior high students as well as a trip to Boblo Island Amusement Park. Cost of these trips ranges from $3 to $15.

The Junior Olympics for kids between the ages of 9 and 14 years old will be conducted at noon on Monday, July 13 in the field of Romulus Junior High School on Wick Road.

"Winners of this local meet will partake in the finals with 55 other Metro Detroit communities at Metro Beach later this summer. There is no cost to the kids," Dick added.

All trips include adult supervision, transportation and entrance fees.

■ Recreational classes are also offered through the department such as dance, gymnastics, pompon and karate during the summer.

Other classes available include tap and ballet dancing. For information on time and registration fees, call the recreation department at 948-6258.

■ Tough day at the office or in the shop? Don't take it out on the kids or your spouse, release that nervous energy and unwind at your neighborhood park.

Elmer Johnson Park is the largest city park located on Ozga Road, south of Wick Road. Local residents can walk, jog and bike throughout the approximately 25 wooded acres at the park.

Should you choose to pitch a few horse shoes in the regulation pits, play tennis on the two courts, shoot archery on the range, play baseball on the diamonds or basketball on the courts, to barbecue or just sit under the pavilion, this park offers it all.

Running water and restroom facilities are also featured. Swings and a playground should keep those little rascals occupied for a period of time. And a groomed nature trail will help the most avid naturalist escape from the daily grind of city life.

Two of the other largest city parks which also offer water and restrooms are Fernandez Park at Fourth Street and Beverly Road and Park Number One at the corner of Henry Ruff and Beverly roads.

■ Romulus residents can also boast of two beautiful golf courses, one is 18 holes and the other is par three. A bicycle trail winds along the I-275 freeway in southwest Romulus. And bowling is offered at the Romulus Recreation on Huron River Drive.

■ Scuba diving enthusiasts are often found under the blue spring fed water of the two manmade gravel pits north of Wick Road and east of Wayne Road.

WAYNE

■ Summer just couldn't sizzle in Wayne without mention of the annual playground program, appropriately dubbed the "Fun Squad."

Six city playgrounds will be featured in the excitement this year, according to Wayne Parks and Recreation Supervisor Jeff Rutter. The playground program, open to Wayne youths between the ages of 5 and 17, offers kickball, basketball, soccer and softball games daily, arts and crafts, tennis and golf lessons and amusements between the hours of 10 a.m. and 5 p.m.

A few special events will also be included this year, Rutter said, including a trip to the wave pool, Junior Olympics, kiddie carnival and year-end picnic on Aug. 7.

The fun squad begins June 22 and runs through Aug. 7. Three adult supervisors will man each of the six playgrounds daily and coordinate the activities. Parks participating include Jaycee Park, Kiwanis Park, Taft Park, Civitan Park, Rotary Park and the Vandenberg School playground. There is no admission charge.

■ The Wayne public parks are available for picnicking and other summertime fun. The parks are open from morning to dusk.

City parks include Harroun Park, Hunt Park, Thimbark Park, Jaycee Park, Attwood Park, Forest, Taft Park, Westwick Park and Anderson Fields.

Offered are picnic tables and grills. A pavilion with restroom facilities is available

My son. The Father.

I worry about all of my children. It's a mother's job. I want them to be happy—to be doing something worthwhile with their lives, something they want to be doing.

Maybe that's why I worry less about this one than about the others. He knows what he's gotten himself into. They gave him enough time to think about it at Sacred Heart before he finally decided to stay.

He's good at what he does. Lord knows they taught him well enough. College. Graduate work.

Plenty of practice before they let him out on his own.

Now he's quite the professional. Long hours, but he makes his own schedule. So sometimes when he drops in to see me, it's the middle of the day, in the middle of the week. Not many of my friends' kids can do that.

He's got no regrets. Why should I? So what if he won't give me grandchildren. A whole lot of people who need him call him "Father," and that's good enough for me.

The work is hard. But the rewards are infinite.

Cool and refreshing

Let chili add flair to summer taste buds

By BOB DENYS
ANP Staff Writer

The Great White North Chili Cooking Team smokes the competition almost every time they enter a kitchen or get near a grill.

During their last nine cook-offs, Westlanders Joe Wnuk and Curt Rellinger placed in the top five contestants. They just returned from the prestigious Saline Chili Cookoff with a third place ribbon. "The judges went 'round and 'round trying to decide," said Wnuk with a smile.

From Canada and Ohio to the corner neighborhood bar, chili aficionados recognize the Great White North Chili as among the very best. Wnuk and Rellinger competed in many cook-offs in the chili circuit since they sliced their first hot pepper six years ago. They are members of the International Chili Society. Last year, judges at the Great Lakes District Championship chose their chili recipe as number one.

Last year, they placed second during the Canada Cook-off, third during the Snowflake Chili Cookoff in Jackson and seventh at the Ohio cook-off. This year, they expect continued recognition with greater achievements.

Their goal is to be the first team east of the Mississippi to win the World Series of chili cook-offs in California later this year. "We're just die-hard chili heads," added Rellington.

Smith tames Tecumseh

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Staff Writer

Getting last-out help from teammate John Page, New Boston Huron's premier pitcher Mike Smith erased Tecumseh from the Chiefs' path to the Class B district baseball playoffs.

Smith eliminated Tecumseh, 6-2, in the pre-district qualifying round last week and lifted his team to the district tournament scheduled for Saturday at Airport.

Coach Jon LaBeau's Chiefs will take to the field at 11 a.m. to meet a Milan club that qualified by beating Monroe Jefferson. The winner of the Huron-Milan game will clash with the survivor of the Airport and Grosse Ile game.

The championship will be decided at 3 p.m.

"Our kids are really looking forward to the district playoffs," said LaBeau whose Chiefs took a 9-9 overall and an 8-5 conference record into the week. (Huron has a make-up game with conference rival Flat Rock today for its final league match up).

LaBeau said his probable starter against Milan would be Page, "who has had a rough time this season winning, but has a decent ERA. If the Chiefs survive the district preliminary test, then LaBeau would use his ace, Smith, in the championship round.

"But we're not looking past Milan," LaBeau said. "They are coming off of a big victory."

Smith was working on a two-

Best and worst of times

It was the worst of times - Romulus losing their first six ball games - and there were good times as Coach Dennis Stoh managed to come back and even their season record at 10-10. But, the season became history for Stoh and the Eagles when Milford claimed a 7-2 victory over Romulus in the qualifying round of the Class A state district playoffs last week.

In the photo at left, Stoh discusses a strategy point with catcher Len Barr and, above, when the cloud of dust clears a Romulus player slides across home plate.

Milford ends Romulus playoff hope

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Staff Writer

Coach Dennis Stoh just couldn't come up with miracles to stop a district-bound Milford team last week.

Milford and its ace pitcher Sean Hayward stopped Stoh's Eagles in the Class A qualifying round of the district playoffs, 7-2, last week. The season-ending setback left Romulus with a .500 record (10-10) for the 1987 campaign.

Stoh feels fortunate that his club managed to reach the .500 mark.

"Considering that we got out to a 0-6 start, finishing at .500 is a small miracle."

Romulus coach

another in the fourth and collected three more in the fifth.

Romulus got one back in the first inning as Brad Boyd led off with a single, moved to second on a wild pitch and scored with Jim Kusibab's first hit of the ball game.

The Eagles put their final run of the game in the fifth when Dean Raley was safe on an infield error, moved to second on a single by Kevin Ferris and scored when Boyd drilled a single.

Stoh saw the fifth inning as crucial and the turning point.

At that point it was a 4-2 ball game and we proceeded to load the bases with only one out," Stoh related. "We came out of that inning with only one run and stranding three base runners. That really hurt us."

Hayward got his second out in that pivotal inning on a strikeout, then a flyout brought the curtains down on the Eagles.

Ford wins high jump league title

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Staff Writer

Deon Ford is not only Belleville High's lone qualifier for the Class A state finals, the senior athlete also was the sole Tiger gold medalist at the Wolverine 'A' Conference Track & Field championships.

Injured at the regional where he settled for a sixth place, Ford came back on Tuesday at Monroe to top the impressive field of high jumpers and capture the gold in his specialty.

Ford successfully negotiated 6 feet, 4 inches and went for the league record of 6 feet, 6 where he barely missed.

"He gave it a good try," said Belleville Coach Dave McCa- rney. "But it just wasn't enough. Deon, however, is our only league champ this year."

Belleville finished third at the meet which saw Wayne upset favored Monroe. The Trojans had defeated Wayne, the defending conference champs earlier in a dual meet. Fordson finished fourth, followed by Southgate Anderson, Trenton, Wyandotte and Lincoln Park.

Belleville also has a pair of silver medalists. Greg Hardmon leaped 19 feet, 3 inches to wind up with the second best effort in the long jump, while the Belleville mile relay team of Garnett Clark, Ford, Mike Gentry and Joe Parks turned in the second-best time of the meet. They were clocked in 3:34.03, while Monroe claimed the event by virtue of a 3:27.61 performance.

Belleville buries Wyandotte, 4-0

With Steve O'Harris firing a three-hitter, Belleville subdued Wyandotte 4-0 last week for their fifth victory in 11 Wolverine 'A' Conference starts this season.

Coach John Bertz and his Tigers will wrap up the 1987 campaign on Thursday against Fordson. They were scheduled to play Lincoln Park on Tuesday.

"This was one of our better games of the season," Bertz said, commenting on his club's victory over the Bruins. "It's games like these that you wish the season was just beginning and not about to end."

O'Harris, a senior southpaw, notched five strikeouts and walked three in evening up his personal record at 3-3. Loser Troy Sill left the game to Paul Strulli in the sixth. It was the first shutout victory of the current campaign for the Tigers and O'Harris, who was staked to two runs in the opening inning and got insurance runs in the fourth and fifth frames.

In the opening inning, Bill Byrd latched on to a Sill curve and sent it for a one-out single, then Kelley O'Neal hammered a two-run homer that sailed over the right field fence. It was O'Neal's second homer of the season. Marty Duda led off with a double and scored on Mike Sawicki's RBI single to account for the Tigers' fourthinning run. In the fifth, Steve Ostrowski also led off with a two-bagger and moved to third with Byrd's sacrifice bunt. Ostrowski eventually scored on Rodney Schellenberger's sacrifice fly.

Sawicki collected two of his team's six hits.

"O'Harris displayed tremendous confidence on the mound in this game," said Bertz, "and we made only one mistake defensively that didn't hurt us."

But Wayne, given new life with Trenton's upset victory over previously undefeated Monroe, wasn't taking chances with the Tigers. Kevin Bescoe defeated Belleville 7-1 to keep Wayne on title track.

Bill Ashley took the loss.

Ford

hit shutout going into the seventh inning when he encountered flak in the form of four hits and two runs. That's when LaBeau decided to remove him and let Page finish up. Page had no problem getting the final out.

The Chiefs took the lead early as Jeff Debozy walked with one away in the first inning, stole second, and with two away Smith drilled an Al Slocum pitch for a triple. But, Slocum, who went the distance, left his counterpart on third when he got Page on three strikes.

Huron made it a 2-0 ball game in the second inning as Andy Jackson latched on to a single with one-away, stole second and advanced to third on Jim Umin's base hit. Then, Mike Debozy squeezed home Jackson for the second run.

In the third, Jeff Debozy led off with a walk, moved to second on a passed ball and to third on a stolen base. Smith's

District

Ford also was awarded a third-place medal for his leap of jump. Jeff Borders' toss of 135 feet, 7 inches gave him the bronze in the discus and McCarney's 880-relay team of Andre Brantley, Clark, Gentry and Parks finished behind Monroe and Southgate with a time of 1:34.34.

The Tigers' 440-relay lineup of Mark Hooks, Jim Hicks, Gentry and Clark also finished behind winner Monroe and Wayne.

McCarney was pleased with his team's overall performance at the league championships.

"I felt we performed up to our potential," McCarney noted. "Wayne and Monroe had excellent teams this year and to finish behind them in the overall standings, I believe, is pretty good for this team."

Calling all area softball managers

Johnnie A. Sims was considered one of the finest athletes in Inkster's history. He loved baseball and when a shoulder injury ended his hopes of playing professional ball, he turned to softball and coaching.

Sims led a host of local teams to statewide honors and also coached some of the finest young ball players in the area. Last month the Inkster-raised athlete was killed during a senseless argument and the accused killer turned himself in to police and is awaiting trial.

In the meantime, the Inkster Parks and Recreation Department, along with Sims' friends and former players, have organized a memorial softball tournament in tribute to the former all-star. The tournament will be staged Friday and Saturday, June 27-28, at three parks: King, Westwood and Oakgrove.

Recreation officials are seeking teams for the tournament and a meeting is scheduled for 6 p.m. Monday, June 22 for all coaches and managers. Team rosters and an entry fee of $100 must be submitted to the Parks and Recreation Department, 2025 Middlebelt Road, by Friday, June 19.

All players must be 18 or older and each team will be

An article about church signs, appearing in the May 13 edition of this newspaper, incorrectly identified a group which the Rev. Andrew Nieckarz supports.

Churches preach attendance

By BOB DENYS
ANP Staff Writer

Some local church congregations may try to fool mother nature if they choose to change the times for Sunday morning worship services during the summer.

And while some churches have opted to retain their regular schedule throughout the year, others readily adapt to the seasonal changes.

A spokesperson from United Methodist Church of Wayne noted an early morning service during the winter months has since been discontinued. "We don't do that anymore. We even continue our Sunday School program. I know attendance is down but we feel continuity is more important," said the spokesperson.

Many adults, and 55 children, regularly attend one of the nearly 10 different classes on Sunday.

Pastor Thomas Wirsing of St.

Michael's Lutheran Church in Wayne noted his parish institutes a new schedule each summer. "Our parish adds a Monday night worship service during the summer. That's our only change," he said.

He said the church offers 8:15 and 10:45 a.m. services all year long with Bible and Sunday school in between. "This hits people who like to come early and those who like to sleep late. By far the most attendance is seen at the later service with 200 people. One hundred attend the first service," he noted.

Most churches in the area retain the same service schedule throughout the year, but over at Community United Methodist in Romulus, the situation this year has created a dilemma for the administrative council of the church.

Pastor Margery Schleicher explained that the congregation is being asked to submit their preference this week whether or not to change Sunday service time from 11 a.m. to 10 a.m. This would tentatively begin June 7 and continue through Sept. 6.

"We've never done this before. But a group of lay people proposed the idea and we'll see if the congregation wants it. One man indicated he and his wife would cancel each other out. He would like to go early and she wouldn't," she explained.

The church normally offered the one service for their congregation of less than 100. Sunday school is cancelled for the summer.

"I'm not the one who proposed the idea. But the closer to noon, the hotter it gets and some people want to get out early. So we'll poll the congregation. There's a lot of strong feelings about the issue. For some reason it's an emotional issue. Some people say, let's not go through this again," Pastor Schleicher said.
